Maricopa County Recorder Launches Search for Elections Director

Keeping with his campaign promise to search far and wide for the County's next Elections Director, Maricopa County Recorder Adrian Fontes began a national search for the Elections Director this week.

"We are reaching out to professionals in the election administration world, which is a small but well-connected community," Fontes said. "After speaking to several experts we've determined that the pool of qualified candidates for this position is most likely narrow."

The posting was shared for distribution with elections groups across the country including Pew Charitable Trust, Yale Center for Elections and the Center for Election Science.

The Recorder's office and county Human Resources Department will begin the screening process on March 20.

"This is one of the most important decisions I will make during the course of my administration," Fontes said.
