Voter Assistance

- Help Getting Registered
- Early Voting Options
- Election Day at the Polls
- Important Voter Information
- Alternative Formats

Help Getting Registered

- If you are not registered, you can register at anytime.
- In order to vote in an election you must be registered by 29 days before that election.
- The first time that you register you need to provide proof of citizenship:
 - AZ drivers license or non-operating ID #
 - Tribal ID #
 - Naturalization #
 - Present or send copy of birth certificate
 - Present or send copy of US passport

Help Getting Registered

- To be eligible to register you must be:
 - A United States Citizen (does not effect your tribal status)
 - A resident of Arizona
 - At least 18 by the date of the next General Election
- You cannot be:
 - A convicted felon who has not had your civil rights restored
 - Adjudicated incompetent

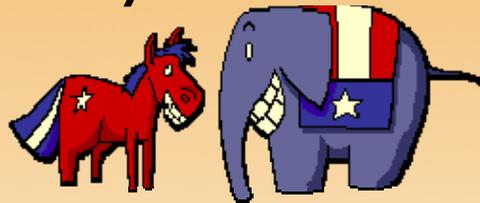

Help Getting Registered

- Where can I register?
 - County Recorder / Elections Department
 - Tribal Offices
 - Social Services Offices (WIC, AHCCS, etc)
 - Department of Motor Vehicles
 - Political Parties
 - Outreach booths at events such as Pow Wows, Fairs, etc.

Help Getting Registered

- When you register you can choose to belong to a party or not.
- If you do not select a recognized party in the September Primary elections you can select the ballot you would like.

- In a Presidential Preference Election only those voters registered to the party are eligible to participate.

Help Getting Registered

- Once you register you only need to re-register if you:
 - Move to a new address
 - Change your mailing address
 - Add or change political party
 - Change your name
 - Your signature changes
- Proof of citizenship is not necessary when updating your registration.

Help Getting Registered

- If you need help getting registered contact your local county office or your tribal election coordinator.
- If you have an Arizona Driver's license you can register online at www.servicearizona.com

The screenshot shows the ServiceArizona website interface. The browser address bar displays "http://www.servicearizona.com/". The website header features the "SERVICEARIZONA" logo and navigation icons. A large yellow arrow points from the text in the slide to the "Vehicle Registration Renewal" link on the website. The main content area is a grid of service links, each accompanied by a small icon representing the service. The links include: Vehicle Registration Renewal, Renovación de Registro de Vehículo, Restricted Use 3-Day Permit, Personalized/Special Plates, Plate Refund, Fleet Registration Renewal, Motor Vehicle Record, Insurance Verification, Energy Efficient Plates (HOV/Hybrid), Change of Address, Duplicate Driver License/ID (Express Delivery Available), Duplicate Vehicle Registration, Voter Registration, Driver License Reinstatement, Plate Credit, Sold Notice, Vehicle Fee Recap, Tab Replacement, and Aircraft Registration Renewal. A sidebar on the right contains "FEATURED LINKS" and "INFORMATION" sections. At the bottom, a banner states "SAME FEES - SAME SERVICES MORE CONVENIENT!" and notes that all transactions are offered for the same fees as in an MVD Office.

Vehicle Registration Renewal	Change of Address	Address/Email Change
Renovación de Registro de Vehículo	Duplicate Driver License/ID Express Delivery Available	Duplicate Vehicle Registration

Early Voting Questions

- How do I mark my vote?
 - Depending on your county you will either fill-in the arrow:

- Or you will fill in the oval:

Early Voting Questions

- What type of pen should I use to mark my vote?
 - Blue or black ball point/roll-tip pens
 - Blue or black felt tip (not ones that will bleed through)
 - #2 Pencil
- BASIC IS BETTER!

Early Voting Questions

- What should I NOT use to mark my vote?
 - Colored ink—especially red
 - Glitter pens
 - Thick markers which will bleed through the ballot
 - Crayons
 - Highlighters

Early Voting Questions

- What if I make a mistake?
 - If there is time before the election you can return the ballot for a replacement. Be sure to check the box on the back of the envelope saying that you are spoiling the ballot.

- Call your county office and they will send you a new ballot.
- If there isn't time to get a new ballot in the mail, you may go to the polls on Election Day. You will be asked to vote a provisional ballot.

Early Voting Questions

- When do I need to mail my ballot back?
 - You need to be sure that the county will have your ballot by 7 PM on election night.
 - The postmark does not matter.
 - You can drop off your early ballot at any polling place.
- Can someone else take my ballot in for me?
 - You can give your ballot to someone you trust to turn in for you, but please be sure that it is someone you know and trust.

Early Voting Options

- Early Voting Sites
 - You can also go to an early voting location if you prefer
 - Contact your local County Recorder &/or Elections Office and they can provide a list of their sites
 - Your District offices and Chapter Houses may also have the list so you may want to check with them.

Early Voting Options

- Early Voting Sites

- Times and dates may vary at locations based on the facilities business hours, but the early voting period at the County offices begins 33 days prior to the election until the Friday before.

Early Voting Options

- Early Voting Sites
 - Many of the Tribes will organize trips to the early voting offices. See if that is offered in your area, or if it could be.
 - You can also contact your local political party and see if they offer rides to early voting locations and to the polls on Election Day.

Early Voting Options

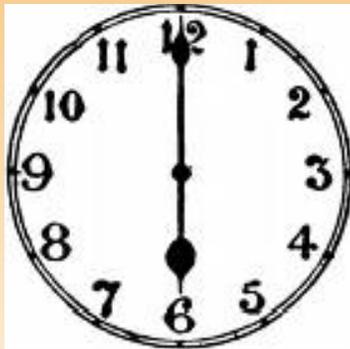

- Special Election Boards

- If you are unable to go to an early voting site and don't have anyone to help you vote at home but need assistance marking the ballot, you can request a Special Election Board
- The SEB are bi-partisan board of a Democrat and a Republican who will come to your home and help you to cast your ballot.
- You want to contact your local county office schedule well in advance of the election.

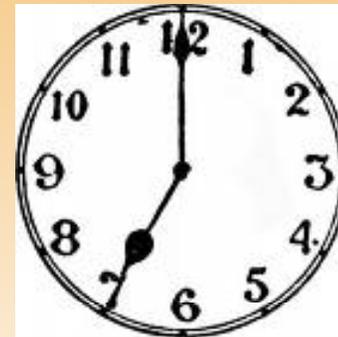

Election Day at the Polls

- The polls are open on Election Day at 6:00 AM
- The polls close at 7:00 PM. Anyone in line at that time has the right to vote.

Election Day at the Polls

- The polls can be busy when they first open with voters stopping by on their way to work, and at the end of the day with voters coming after work.
- To possibly avoid waiting in line, come in the middle of the morning or mid-afternoon.

Election Day at the Polls

- You can also bring in someone to assist you.
- They can be any age and do not have to be related to you.
- And you may get them started young!

Election Day at the Polls

- Many counties in Arizona are required to provide language assistance in one or more of the Native languages at some or all of the polling locations.
- If you, or someone you know, needs translation assistance contact your local county to see if it is available in your area.
- Some counties have specific outreach workers who can help you.
